

Soccer Coach at Sports Club Quito

This project was created by 2 friends, who have a dream, a passion and a vision of empowering local youth of Quito through soccer playing. They have created a soccer school in the very South of Quito and train with the local youngsters every day of the week after school. If you are interested in this project, consider combining it with teaching English at an English Language Center which is a project of the same foundation.

Today soccer school uses soccer trainings to kids between 6 and 16 years to not only have them playing sports, but to through sports also teach them values such as respect, teamwork and tolerance.
